PROFILE

SUMMARY · PER JOB

Product manager who owns the whole arc: requirements, build, production, launch and the numbers after. At NOWN, the CEO assigned me an interior architecture product to run end to end, a manufactured ceiling and wall system with its own software configurator, and I now lead the launch of a second product line. Four years across agency and in-house. Trilingual (English, Arabic, French).

SELECTED WORK

4 PROOF POINTS · CHOSEN PER JOB

NOWN

Ceiling system + configurator

Owned a physical product and its software configurator end to end: requirements, developer management, production, go-to-market.

NOWN

Launch that moved demand

ASOFT is NOWN's acoustic felt material, sold in a range of colours. Launched its new colours through a staged funnel: +15% quote requests, ~+10% traffic.

EMG · MITSUBISHI

Global brand, on message

Shaped content messaging and media training for Mitsubishi's spokespeople; stepped up into budget and pricing across global B2B accounts.

CHATLICENSE

Tested before it shipped

Took a pre-launch app into schools across the Netherlands, ran user testing and fed the findings back into the product.

EXPERIENCE

NOWN: Marketing & Brand Manager · Product Owner

Jan 2025 – Present · Amsterdam

B2B design & architecture studio (acoustic surfaces). Reporting to the CEO.

BULLET ORDER + WORDING · PER JOB

- Interior ceiling & wall system, end-to-end Product Manager (assigned by the CEO): drove the product from design through production while managing the developer building its configurator; wrote the requirements that kept engineering aligned and owned every prioritisation call and deadline through launch.
- Acoustic wall-panel range, Product Owner (32 patterns × 33 finishes): built the launch operating system: PRD and OKRs, JTBD positioning, MoSCoW scope, RICE-prioritised launch waves, Stage-Gate plan, RACI/DACI decision rights, RAID log and AARRR metrics.
- Audited site search (Algolia) and GA4: found untracked conversions and a misconfiguration costing ≈$2k/month; briefed developers, capped spend, set UTM rules and instrumented click data.
- Own brand strategy and EMEA positioning, including the rebrand; lead creative, web-dev and production teams.

EMG: Account Executive

Sep 2023 – Jan 2025 · Amsterdam

B2B agency for global industrial brands: Mitsubishi, OQ, Songwon, ClearCorrect, Westfalia.

- OQ (Oman's national energy company): built the "Energy Beyond Limits" narrative and message architecture for three flagship industrial projects, shown at the GCC's major energy events.
- Mitsubishi: shaped content messaging and media training for high-profile spokespeople. Songwon: ran Google Ads and built its sustainability story on its EcoVadis Platinum rating.
- Owned global trade-show programmes from brief to budget to post-event reporting, directing copywriters and content creators; stepped up into budget and pricing when my manager changed roles.
- Pitched new business; competitive research for ClearCorrect and Westfalia shaped their strategy.

ChatLicense: Marketing & Content Specialist

Mar 2023 – Sep 2023 · Rotterdam

- Worked inside the dev team on a pre-launch digital-literacy app; ran school user testing that shaped it before launch.
- Built social and content strategy across LinkedIn, TikTok and in-app, driven by user insight and engagement data.
